Annie Minogue Band Biography

Meet AMB! Their driving and energizing sound, which combines a gutsy rock attitude with great pop sensibility and a hint of the blues, is reminiscent of some of rock's greatest female icons.

The lineup which consists of Nunzio Signore (Guitar), Jeff Catania (Guitar), Nick Saya (Drums), Peter Williamson (Bass) and Minogue (Vocals) never fails to stimulate and excite audiences.

The band has put on amazing performances all over the USA alongside some rock legends:

- David Lee Roth's USA tour (opening act)
- Chris Whitley NE USA tour (opening act)
- Guinness Oyster Fest (opening for Dave Navarro)
- Summerfest (opening for Black Eyed Peas/Soul Asylum)
- Sturgis Music Festival (opening for the Steve Miller Band)
- Sundance Film Festival (Featured Performer)
- Texas State Fair (Headlining Act)

Annie Minogue has been a singer, songwriter and musician her entire life. Her father was a professional musician and their household in New York City was always filled with music and talent, giving her a positive perspective of the industry as a wonderful way to make a living. Her musical influences have ranged from Patti Smith to Led Zeppelin and everywhere in-between.

Her breakthrough solo debut album "Home" was released in 2000 on the Nippon Crown label in Japan, pulling in nonstop great reviews and leading to another release on Annie's own imprint Liberty Place Records called "Love Parade."

Minogue's craft for songwriting along with her powerfully expressive voice have given her firm roots within the music world. Having garnered acclaim and praise from some of today's top music supervisors and program directors, Minogue's music has enjoyed some substantial media time, being featured on film, TV and radio:

- MTV's Real World
- TV Guide Channel
- Dawson's Creek
- Lifetime Television
- MSNBC "Mitch Albom Show"
- Out Of The Black (Independent feature film)
- Q104.3 FM & 93.3FM in New York (Featured Artist)
- Cannes Film Festival Selection "Not About AJ"

And, as a final addition to what already has been a highly acclaimed career, come the awards and endorsements:

- National Artist Of The Year (LA Music Awards)
- Female Vocalist Of The Year (South Bay Music Awards)
- Top Music Artist (Temecula Music & Film Festival)
- ASCAP Popular Music Award
- Behringer Audio
- Electrovoice
- Daisy Guitars
