Kerygma Project Biography

We decided to learn some peculiarities from important UK bands, like Genesis (Collins period), Emerson Lake & Palmer, Yes, The Police, and some elements taken from classical and jazz music.

We present our music like a renovation of a tradition which goes beyond all kind of genre.

We started to play music in different bands and in 1998 we decided to create a new band with a new kind of sound. Marco and Danilo come from jazz and classical studies, but they played rock for long time in different bands; Samuele played bass in rock, blues and jazz bands, but started to sing after that first period. When Kerygma was formed Samuele was considered the lead vocal by the band.

Now the group is working to finish the last album and preparing new live performances.
