The Dancing Nobody Biography

We are a diverse crowd of many nationalities from across the US. Our influences range from pop to jazz to classical to spoken word poetry and beyond. We came together in Spring of 2009 to record a record that stood for something more spiritual than our own personal interests. The Live Beyond Yourself album consists of a wide range of styles, yet is held together by a consistent display of positive messages. Our goal is to share important messages to the world at large — and beyond — through the songs we create.
